

As someone concerned with the safety of our first-responders, I support the Consensus Plan to realign the 800 MHz spectrum. Public safety officials help us, and now we need to help them. Please make communications safe for the public safety community by solving the interference problem permanently.